CLOS MARSALETTE 2010

This small estate is part of the empire of Stefan von Neipperg, who generally uses Stéphane Derenoncourt as his consultant. This 2010 is a classic Graves, with broad tobacco leaf and smoky, spicy barbecue notes, as well as plenty of forest floor, Christmas fruitcake

PESSAC-LEOGNAN ($32.00) RED 89

and kirsch liqueur. Even a hint of fig pops into this blend of 50% Cabernet Sauvignon, 45% Merlot and 5% Cabernet Franc. At 13.5%, the alcohols here were more modest than one normally finds in this vintage. Drink it over the next 6-8+ years.

2010 Clos Marsalette rouge: Extrem dunkles Purpur. Schwarze Kirschen, nobler Ansatz, dezente Kandisnoten. Samte-ner, dunkelbeeriger Gaumen.

CLOS MARSALETTE

Pessac-Léognan

92-93

Crazy cool nose of dark fruits with licorice and black pepper. Full bodied, with gorgeous fruits and silky refined tannins and a long, fruity finish. Bright and beautiful. Best ever from here.

CLOS MARSALETTE

BLANC

Clos Marsalette

Joli nez intense sur des notes de fruit à chair blanche. Corps équilibré, chatoyant.

CLOS MARSALETTE BLANC

Pessac-Léognan

90-91

This is 70 per cent sauvignon blanc and shows bright and wonderful aromas of peach and lemons. Full and bright with a clean finish.
